sa·m® ADVANCED MANAGEMENT journal

1982 Index

Career development: The ultimate incentive, by William E. Kent and Fred L. Otte — spring/page 8
To catch a corporate thief, by Carol B. Gilmore — winter/page 35
Commuting and the home location decision, by Mark R. Edwards and Loevia V. Hockley — autumn/page 23
"Did somebody forget to tell you? You're fired!" by Stanley Sherman — spring/page 29
The effective management of diversity, by Elaine Carter, Elaine Kepner, Malcolm Shaw, and William Brooks Woodson — autumn/page 49
How alcoholism treatment pays for itself, by Kenneth P. Camisa — winter/page 53
How to manage the MBA, by Robert M. Donnelly — summer/page 43
How to prepare for your performance review, by Margaret A. Bogerty — autumn/page 12
Managing for greater productivity, by Jay Hall — spring/page 20
Managing the right project, by Mike Sanderson — winter/page 59
A new structure for developing new product ideas, by Richard Corbin — summer/page 4
Organizational structure: The source of low productivity, by Gregory Hendrick — winter/page 20
The other side of competitive vigilance, by Ira A. Lipman — winter/page 4
Picking the right person for your mentor, by Stephen C. Bushardt, Roy N. Moore, and Sukumar C. Debnath — summer/page 46
Preparing the task force to get good results, by Susan D. Van Raalte — winter/page 11
A pricing strategy for a more competitive world, by Gordon V. Karels and Frank Zahn — summer/page 35
A question for business owners: "Are you prepared for success?" by Peter Moffitt — autumn/page 4

A sales compensation system that maximized motivation and economy, by Leon Winer spring/page 46
Sensitivity—the missing ingredient for success, by Thomas L. Quick and Margaret V. Higginson spring/page 57
Shift work: the wave of the future, by Karolynn Siegel autumn/page 42
Successful strategies for introducing new products, by Harold W. Fox autumn/page 26
Surviving an EEO lawsuit, by James Ledvinka and Vida Scarpello summer/page 23
Ten ways to improve the effectiveness of your campus interview, by Jack J. Phillips autumn/page 56
The uses of responsibility accounting, by William L. Ferrera winter/page 40
What business can do to cut health-care costs, by John F. Wagner summer/page 12
What makes Japanese products better? by Hajime Karatsu spring/page 4
What we can learn from the Japanese about QCs, by Carla Visser summer/page 55